INVITATION

The Hungarian Association for Buiatrics, in co-operation with the Budapest University of Veterinary Medicine, International Society for Animal Hygiene and the Hungarian Society for Animal Hygiene and Environmental Protection are very pleased to invite you to participate the In memoriam Ferenc Kovács International Congress and the XXVI International Congress of the Hungarian Association for Buiatrics, which will be held at the University of Veterinary Medicine, Budapest from October 9 to 12, 2016. Lectures and posters will be presented on October 10 and 11 while on October 12 workshops will be organised.

The programme of the Congress will aim at updating the scientific knowledge and professional skills of veterinary surgeons and stock breeders in farm animal practice to enable them to achieve an ever increasing qualification and help the veterinary surgeons and stock breeders to get more familiar with each other.

In addition to the scientific programme social programmes will be organised for the participants and accompanying persons. The exhibition area will serve to present products manufactured by various companies.

The organisers will spare no efforts in offering you successful and agreeable days in Budapest, Hungary.

VENUE OF THE CONGRESS

Budapest is one of the most beautiful capitals in Europe, and has several World Heritage Sites like the banks of the Danube, the Buda Castle Quarter, Andrásy Avenue, Heroes' Square and the Millennium Underground Railway, the second-oldest metro line in the world. It has around 80 geothermal springs and the world's largest thermal water cave system.

Budapest University of Veterinary Medicine is one of the oldest veterinary schools all over in Europe. It was founded in 1787 and the 230th Academic Year will be started this September. The students are thought in three languages, in Hungarian, in English and in German. The veterinary education of the University has been fully accredited by the European Association of Establishments for Veterinary Education since 2004.
